

I seem to recall, from some twenty years ago, that persons unknown packed salt blocks into Running Creek (pvt) on the Selway River after the ranch had closed for the season. Wildlife were attracted to the salt over the winter, and much damage was done to the strip.

I did not see this myself, but heard about it from Forest Service personnel. I do not know how to confirm that it occurred.

Thank you for the survey effort.

Ken Jackson

IAA