

I know of at least two instances where emergency evacuation of persons from Moose Creek were performed. I also know that it was the Salmon River Ranger who on his own closed Wilson Bar Airstrip without any notice. And I know that unknown persons placed salt on the Shearer and the Cayuse Creek landing strips hoping that the elk would cause enough damage to make the strips unusable, they did.

Johnny Stewart